

GEORGE GIBSON, born perhaps about 1745, died between 14 August and 3 November 1819 in Upper Oxford Township, Chester County, Pennsylvania.

He married, as his first wife, ELIZABETH ----, who died 23 October = 1784, "aged near 40," according to the records of Rev. John Evans Finley, = pastor of Faggs Manor Presbyterian Church.

He married, as his second wife, on 17 August 1792, Eleanor Elliot, of Octorara (i.e., Sadsbury Township, Chester County, or perhaps across = the line in Lancaster County), born between 1765 and 1774. The 1800 and = 1810 censuses indicate that she was probably the mother of a son and three = or four daughters.

George appears in the tax lists for the first time in 1766, when he was listed as a freeman in West Fallowfield Township. He was so listed in = 1767, 1768, and 1769. In 1771 he was no longer a freeman, so must have = married by this year. He was taxed on 50 acres, one horse, one cow, and three = sheep. His land holdings increased to 80 acres in 1774 and 100 acres in 1779. During the Revolution, he served as a private in Capt. Dunn's Company = of the Chester County Militia, and again in the 7th Company of Chester County Militia in 1780, and in 1781 in Capt. Cochran's Company. He was a = member of the presbytery of Faggs Manor Presbyterian Church on 6 June 1782 and = again on 4 March 1785, but does not appear in a list of members of the church = in 1804. The 1785 tax list finds him in Londonderry Township, as do the = 1790 and 1800 censuses. In the latter year his household consisted of one = male under 10, two males 16-21, one male over 45, one female under 10, and = one female 26-45. In 1810, he was also in Londonderry Township, next to = William Gibson, with one male 10-16, one male 16-26, one male over 45, two = females under 10, three females 10-16, and one female 26-45. He and his wife =

land in 1796 to John Crosby, in 1801 to Allen Chandler, in 1802 to John Chambers, in 1807 to John Reece, in 1811 to John Ramsey, and in 1814 to William Gibson. George Gibson was appointed administrator of the estate of Thomas Beatty, of Chester County, on 20 February 1784. He and Rev. John E. Finley witnessed the will of John Hindman, of London Grove, on 21 August 1789.=20

By his will, dated 14 August 1819, George Gibson gave to his wife Elinor her bed and bed clothes, the best case of drawers, and the large dining table. He ordered that the plantation on which he and his family lived be made use of until his daughter Mary Gibson reached the age of twenty-one in 1821, at which time it would be sold at auction. From the money arising from the sale, he gave $16 each to his sons John, Andrew, Thomas, Jacob, George Washington, and William, and daughter Margaret Biggart. He gave his wife Elinor one-third of the proceeds, she to dispose of them at her death as she thought proper. He gave the remaining two-thirds to his other children Joseph Elliot Gibson, Agness Gibson. He gave to Joseph Elliot Gibson $100 before any division was made, as well as a bed, and gave beds and bedding to daughters Agness and Mary Gibson. He appointed William Gibson and Joseph Elliot Gibson executors. The will was witnessed by Robert Thomson and Nathaniel Crosby; they acknowledged their signatures in court on 4 November 1819, at which time William and Joseph Elliot Gibson were appointed letters testamentary and ordered to present an inventory of his estate.=20

Children of George and Elizabeth Gibson:

i. John Gibson. The will of Isabel Ramsey, of Londonderry Township, Chester County, dated 9 October 1787, proved 29 May 1788, gives =A310 to George Washington Gibson at the age of 21, with reversion to his

"elder" brother John Gibson, sons of George Gibson. In 1819, John = Gibson,
through an attorney, sold land to William Townsend and others.

ii. Andrew Gibson, living in 1819.

iii. Thomas Gibson, born 28 February 1772.

iv. Jacob Gibson, living 1819. Although descendants believe him to be the son of Jacob and Margaret (McElhane) Gibson and the grandson = of George Gibson, the senior Jacob does not appear in records of West Fallowfield, where the younger Jacob Gibson lived. This person, born = about 1776, died 1 August 1843 in West Fallowfield Township, Chester County, Pennsylvania. He married Jane Elizabeth Brush, born 21 February 1781 in

vi. George Washington Gibson, born 1781, died 8 November 1858,
"in the 78 yr. of his age," in Rush Township, Tuscarawas County, Ohio, =
and was buried in Feed Springs Church Cemetery, Franklin Township, Harrison County, Ohio. He married Rebecca Reed, perhaps the daughter of William =
and Rebecca (Gibson) Reed, born 1785, died 6 June 1829, "in the 45 Yr. of = her age," buried in Feed Springs Church Cemetery. They must have been in = Brooke
County, West Virginia, by 1809, as their daughter Elizabeth was born = there.
In 1820, they were in Dohrman Township, Harrison County, Ohio, with = three males under 10, one male 10-16, one male 26-45, one female under 10, =
three females 10-16, and one female 26-45. Children:

?a. Margaret Gibson, married 15 May 1828, in Tuscarawas County, Ohio, Josiah Guttery. In 1820, John and Robert Guttery lived near George W.
Gibson. George W. Gibson, however, did not name her or her heirs in his will.

Mary Archbold, daughter of Patrick and Francenia (McLain) Archbold.

- h. Isabel Gibson, born 24 May 1823 in Ohio, died 2 April 1887 in Rush Township, Tuscarawas County, Ohio. She married, on 16 February 1843, in Tuscarawas County, Ohio, James Sproul, born 30 January 1822, died 9 = January 1890.
- i. Susannah Gibson, born 22 September 1825 (or 1826), died 21 January 1900 in Rush Township, Tuscarawas County, Ohio. She married, on 19 = March 1846, in Tuscarawas County, Robert Sproul, born 16 February 1822 (or = 1823).=20

Children of George and Eleanor (Elliot) Gibson:

viii. Joseph Elliot Gibson.

ix. Agnes Gibson, unmarried in 1819.

x. Mary Gibson, born 1800.

THOMAS GIBSON, said to be born 28 February 1772, in West Fallowfield Township, Chester County, Pennsylvania, died 29 May 1866, "aged about = 90 years," in Rush Township, Tuscarawas County, Ohio, was buried in Lima = Church Cemetery.

He married JANE BUCHANAN, daughter of David and Margaret Buchanan, born = 9 January 1779 in Londonderry Township, Chester County, Pennsylvania, = died 14 October 1856 in Rush Township, Tuscarawas County, Ohio, buried in Lima Church Cemetery.

Thomas and Jane must have gone to the West Virginia Panhandle between = about 1809 and 1811; their daughter Jane, born the latter year, reported her birthplace as Virginia. He may be the Thomas Gibson listed in Brooke = County, Virginia (now West Virginia), with one male under 10, one male 26-45, = three females under 10, and one female 26-45, but there was a Thomas Gibson, = with a wife Mary, who went to Columbiana County, Ohio, from Brooke County, = having received a bequest from his brother William, who died in that county in 1818. In 1820, Thomas was the head of a household in Freeport Township, Harrison County, Ohio, with two males under 10, one male 10-16, one = male

16-25, one male over 45, two females under 10, four females 10-16, and = one female 26-45. On 13 February 1829, Thomas Gibson bought from Thomas = Lyons and his wife Irene, for $100, 51 acres in the west side of the east = quarter of the southwest quarter of section 20 in township 6, range 1 west, in Tuscarawas County. In 1830, the family was in Rush Township, =
Tuscarawas
County, Ohio, with one male 5-10, one male 70-80 (!), and one female = 60-70.
On 5 August 1837, Thomas Gibson took out a U.S. patent on the northwest quarter of the northeast quarter of section 24, in township 6, range 1 = west, consisting of 40 acres, but on 24 February 1845, he and his wife Jane =
sold
it to David Gibson, for $100.=20

By his will, dated 16 September 1864, proved 20 June 1866, Thomas =
Gibson
gave two his sons George and David each one dollar, in addition to what = they had already received. He gave one dollar each to his daughters =
Elizabeth Huff, to the heirs of his daughter Isabell Kennedy, and to the heirs of = his daughter Jane Martin. He gave $50 to his daughter Tabitha Orr, to be = paid by his executor four years after his death. He gave to his daughter =
Margaret
Johnson the farm on which he lived, as well as whatever stock he owned, farming utensils, grain, furniture and household goods. He appointed Margaret Johnson executrix of his will. Thomas Gibson signed by mark; =
the will was witnessed by John Schooly and Samuel G. Kennedy.=20

Children of Thomas and Jane (Buchanan) Gibson:

i. George Gibson, born 1803 in Pennsylvania, died 1868, probably in Pike County, Illinois. He married, 27 November 1823, in = Harrison
County, Ohio, Mary Johnson, daughter of Griffin and Sarah Mary (Wright)
Johnson, born 1802 in Ohio, died 1864, probably in Pike County, = Illinois.
On 9 August 1850, he purchased 40 acres of federal land in Perry = County, the southwest quarter of the southeast quarter of section 26, township 5 = south, range 2 west. On 27 February 1860, George and Mary Gibson sold to David Gibson, for $25, the southeast corner of the southwest quarter of the

BUCHANAN

Steve Kennedy, a descendant of Isabel (Gibson) Kennedy, received information from another Kennedy descendant, Jim Barkley. He had a typed history of =

Buchanan family written by Ralph W. Hines in 1935, entitled "The Googy Records." This included a sketch of the Buchanan and Gibson families. =
It
says:

David Buchanan emigrated to America from Ireland in the latter half of =
the 17th century. He died August 15, 1799. He was married to Margaret = Boggs,
January 23, 1770, who died September 2, 1819. To this union four = children were born, (I) Alexander, (II) John, (III) Margaret Cochran, (IV) Jane.

(IV) Jane was born March 9, 1779 and died December 14, 1856. She was = married to Thomas Gibson, who was born February 28, 1772 and died June 5, 1866. =
To
this union were born the following children, (George, David, Elizabeth, Isabel, Jane, Tabitha, and Margaret.)

This sketch seems to have been based on old family records, since the = dates are not found elsewhere and must come from such a source. No place = names are given, but David Buchanan of Londonderry Township, Chester County, Pennsylvania, died testate in 1799, bequeathing property (by will dated = 16
Aug. 1798, proved 1 October 1799, recorded in Will Book K, vol. 10, pp.
139-141) to a wife Margaret and children Alexander, John, and Jane. No daughter Margaret Cochran is named; the name Cochran was common in Londonderry, but she could have died without issue by that date. =
Presumably
David and Margaret are buried in Faggs Manor Presbyterian Church =
Cemetery.
Pennsylvania marriage licenses show one issued to David Buchanan and Margaret Boggs, 23 January 1770.

In the Chester County tax lists, David Buchanan first appears in 1760 = in West Fallowfield, and was there in 1762 and 1763. As he was not named a "freeman," meaning a single adult male, he must have been married at = that time. He appears in Londonderry in 1766, with 100 acres, and on = subsequent lists is in that town. In 1767 and 1771 he was described as a = blacksmith.

In a letter to Mrs. David L. Ostfeld, of 6651 N. Mendota Ave., Chicago, =
IL
60646, dated 30 Sept. 1984, Evylon Buchanan, of 3452 Lime Ave., Long = Beach,
CA 90807, a descendant of David's son Alexander, writes "the story = handed down thru generations is that Alexander and his brother came to = America, were separated at the dock and never saw each other again. From this we might guess they came as 'Indentured Servants.'" This story more likely would refer to Alexander's father David.

No other Buchanans seem to have lived nearby, so such a story seems plausible. However, it does seem possible that David had children by = his first wife and did not mention them in his will. The records of Faggs = Manor
Presbyterian Church, or rather of its minister John E. Finley, mention = a marriage of George Luckie and Elizabeth Buchanan, on 9 April 1783, and = one of David Buchanan and Eliz. Ried, 1 Mar. 1792. Mary, daughter of David =
and Eliza Buchanan, was baptized 31 March 1793.

Margaret Boggs is harder to figure out. The most likely person to be = her father, William Boggs, who died in 1790 in West Fallowfield, had a = daughter
Margaret, but his will proves that she was married to James Johnston. = If she was a widow when she married, no suitable Boggs husband can yet be = found.

The IGI has a record (source 1553754) of a John Buchanan, born 1778, of Londonderry, Chester County, Pa., son of David Buchanan and Margaret Merrick, so this needs to be investigated.

The summary thus is:

David Buchanan, b. c.1735? Ireland, d. 15 Aug. 1799 Londonderry Twp.,
Chester Co., Pa.; m. (1) unknown; (2) by license dated 23 Jan. 1770 =
Margaret
Boggs, b. c.1740?, d. 2 Sept. 1819. Children by second wife, born in

Londonderry:

i. Alexander Buchanan, b. 3 July 1772, d. 20 May 1851 Rush Twp., Tuscarawas County, Ohio. He probably was married twice. The 1800 census lists him in Londonderry Township, with a household consisting = of one male 16-26, one male 26-45, one female under 10, two females 16-26, and = two females over 45. Thus he apparently had children by his first wife. He = m. 3 May 1832, in Harrison Co., Ohio, Rosanna Gilmore, b. 15 March 1803 = Ireland, d. 25 Jan. 1849 Rush Twp., Tuscarawas Co., Ohio. On 27 April 1813, he bought, for $250, land in section 33, township 9, range 3, in Jefferson County, Ohio, and on 30 April 1825, he sold that land to James Fimmeral (Jefferson Co.
